

ABC should be penalized for the Monday night Football introduction, they should not be allowed to sluff off this very bad public obscenity display by just saying, "we are sorry if we offended someone"! I feel that the FCC is not being tough enough on these suggestive sex type commercials and shows that are on TV these days!